

Sea of Heartbreak

Written by: Paul Hampton and Hal David - 1961

Recorded by: Don Gibson - 1961. Also by Johnny Cash & The Everly Brothers

(C) The lights in the (Am) harbour,
(F) Don't shine for me (G),
(C) I'm like a lost (Am) ship,
(F) A drift on the (G) sea.

This sea of (C) heartbreak, lost love and (G) loneliness,
Memories of your (C) caress,
So divine, (F) I wish that you were mine (C) again my dear,
I'm on a (G) sea of tears, a sea of (C) heartbreak. (Am) (C) (Am)

(C) How did I (Am) lose you,
(F) Where did I (G) fail,
(C) Why did you (Am) leave me,
(F) Always to (G) sail.

This sea of (C) heartbreak, lost love and (G) loneliness,
Memories of your (C) caress,
So divine, (F) I wish that you were mine (C) again my dear,
I'm on a (G) sea of tears, a sea of (C) heartbreak.

(F) Oh what I'd give just to (C) sail back to shore,
(F) Back to your arms once (G7) more.

(C) So come to my (Am) rescue,
(F) Come here to (G) me,
(C) Take me and (Am) keep me,
(F) Away from this (G) sea.

This sea of (C) heartbreak, lost love and (G) loneliness,
Memories of your (C) caress,
So divine, (F) I wish that you were mine (C) again my dear,
I'm on a (G) sea of tears, a sea of (C) heartbreak.

A sea of heartbreak, (G)
A sea of (C) heartbreak, (G)
A sea of (C) heartbreak.
